

Writing Celebration — All the Ways I Can Write

Base Sheet

Activity Sheet

The child demonstrates all the forms of writing they have mastered this year: lists, labels, letters, stories, poems, journal entries, and sentences. This celebration showcases the breadth of their writing repertoire.

What You Need:

- Paper (one sheet per writing type)
- Pencil
- Colored pencils for the drawing to label
- Timer (optional, for the 2-minute challenges)

Steps:

1. 'Let's celebrate all the ways you can write! This year you learned SO many kinds of writing.'
2. Challenge: Write one example of each kind — 2 minutes per type.
3. List: 'Write a grocery list — 5 items.'
4. Label: 'Label this drawing of a flower — stem, petal, leaf, root.'
5. Letter: 'Write a one-sentence letter to anyone.'
6. Sentence: 'Write a sentence about today.'
7. Story: 'Write a tiny 2-sentence story.'
8. Poem: 'Write a 3-line poem about summer.'
9. Display all writing on a table: 'Look at everything your hand can do!'

Work Space:

A large, dashed rectangular border occupies the bottom half of the page, intended for children to draw and write their samples.
