

Telling Time Review — To Five-Minute Intervals

Base Sheet

Activity Sheet

The child reviews telling time on an analog clock, focusing on reading time to five-minute intervals. This practical skill connects to the tea party planning (knowing what time to start) and daily life.

What You Need:

- Demonstration analog clock with moveable hands
- Clock worksheet or practice sheet
- Pencil
- Real analog clock or watch (if available)

Steps:

1. Present the demonstration clock.
2. Review: 'The short hand tells the HOUR. The long hand tells the MINUTES.'
3. Review o'clock and half past.
4. 'The numbers around the clock also stand for minutes. The 1 means 5 minutes, the 2 means 10 minutes.'
5. Practice skip counting by 5 around the clock: 5, 10, 15, 20, 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, 55, 60
6. Set the clock to various times: 2:15, 7:30, 10:45, 3:05.
7. The child reads and sets times independently.
8. Connect to the tea party: 'What time is our tea party? Can you show that time on the clock?'

Work Space:

A large, dashed rectangular border occupies the bottom half of the page, intended for the child's work space.
