

Book Report Project — Choosing a Book and Planning

Base Sheet

Activity Sheet

The child selects a chapter book or longer picture book for a week-long book report project. They read the first section, identify the main characters and setting, and begin a planning sheet for their report.

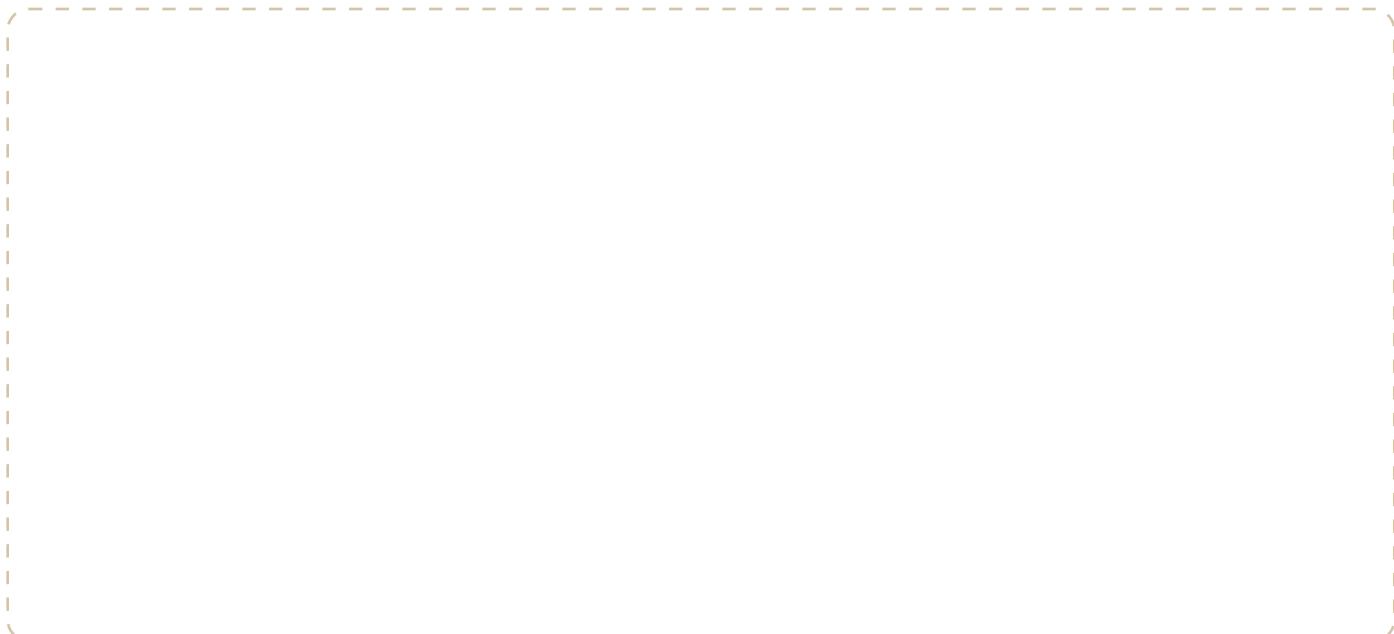

What You Need:

- 3-4 age-appropriate books to choose from
- Planning sheet (blank paper with sections)
- Pencil
- Colored pencils
- Bookmark

Steps:

1. Present 3-4 book options appropriate for the child's reading level.
2. Let the child browse, read the first page of each, and choose one.
3. 'This week you will read this whole book and create a book report — with drawings and writing!'
4. Read the first chapter or section together (or independently if able).
5. On a planning sheet, record: Title, Author, Main Characters (so far), Setting.
6. Draw the setting from the opening of the story.
7. Write one sentence: 'This book is about...'
