

Book Report Project — Reading and Character Analysis

Base Sheet

Activity Sheet

The child continues reading their chosen book and deepens character analysis by identifying character traits, motivations, and feelings. They add detailed character descriptions to their book report.

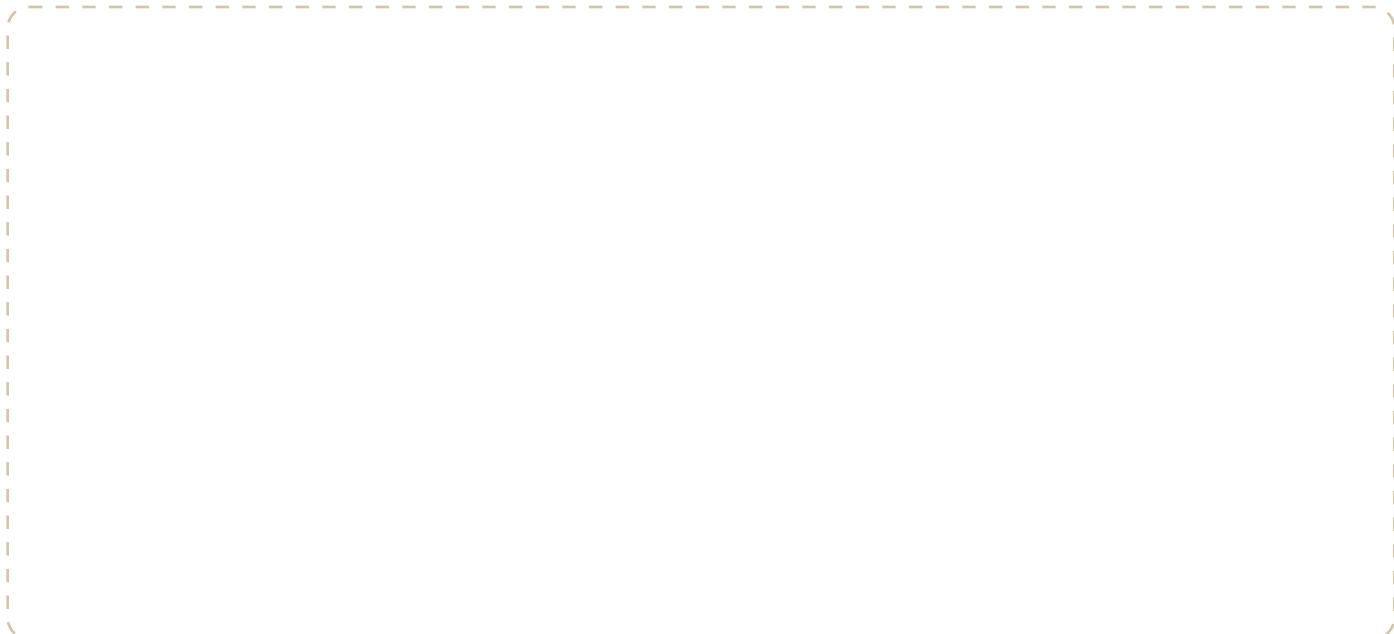

What You Need:

- The child's chosen book
- Book report planning sheet
- Pencil
- Colored pencils
- Character traits word list

Steps:

1. Read the next section of the book (2-3 chapters or equivalent).
2. 'Let's think about the main character. What kind of person are they?'
3. Introduce character traits vocabulary: brave, curious, kind, stubborn, clever, shy
4. 'What does the character WANT? What is their problem?'
5. On the planning sheet, write 3 character traits with evidence: 'I know [character] is brave because...'
6. Draw the main character with speech bubble showing something they said.
7. Write a prediction: 'I think next...'

Work Space:

A large, dashed rectangular frame occupies the bottom half of the page, intended for the child to draw the main character from the book report project.
